"HEALTH CARE COSTS: WHAT IS THE CURE?"

Guest Moderator

Dr. Henry M. Kaiser, MBA, Psy. D (Grandson of Henry J. Kaiser)

Guest Panelists:

Philip C. Curran, Managing Director: Craford Benefit Consultants Tom Loker, Chief Operating Officer, Ramsell Holding Corporation Tangerine M. Brigham, Deputy Director of Health: San Francisco Department of Public Health

John Doherty, Vice President, State Government Affairs: UnitedHealth Group

Even though health care reform has passed, nobody seems to know what it means for health care costs in the future. How do you position yourself to manage upcoming Health Care Reform initiatives?

What we do know is that it addresses who to cover, what you have to provide and how you purchase health care. Most experts believe Health Care Reform will add approximately 8% to employer sponsored health plans, above and beyond normal cost growth – currently moving along at about 10% annual cost growth.

Please join the San Francisco chapter of Financial Executives Networking Group (FENG) and Association for Corporate Growth (ACG) to learn from a panel of experts what to expect and how to best position your company for the coming changes.

Guest Moderator Bio:

Dr. Henry M. Kaiser, MBA, Psy. D.

Dr. Henry M. Kaiser has a consistent history of creating value, opportunity, and solutions in diverse situations. While working with Kaiser Industries Corporation (early - mid 1970's), he developed a technology research partnership with international corporate partners for Kaiser Glass Fiber, a deal ultimately worth more than the business. As President of Kaiser Foundation International, created a consulting vision and scope of work for the international activity of Kaiser Permanente and transformed an ad hoc project entity into an on-going consulting organization. Tripled backlog, built the management team, identified Health Systems Planning projects for private and government clients, and staffed remote area delivery teams for construction projects.

His specialties include Executive leadership and Organizational Psychology, blending business experience and legacy family transition with clinical training and interest in family systems, and applying this perspective to consulting with families; anticipating, experiencing, or reflecting upon their intergenerational experience and/or consulting with community service agencies. He has served 30 years as a Director, Kaiser Hospitals and Health Plan and 20 years as Trustee, Kaiser Family Foundation.
